Government for the purpose of recognition for grant of pension is different from the criteria adopted by the State Governments. As such, all the State freedom fighters are not recognised by the Central Government although they are getting pension from the State Government.

(c) Under the Swatantrata Sainik Samman Pension Scheme, 1980, a person who had undergone a minimum period of six months imprisonment, internment/ externment, abscodnence against an executive action of the Government, in connection with his participation in the Freedom Struggle is entitled for consideration of grant of pension. Other types of sufferings such as loss of Government job, confiscation/attachment of property, 10 strokes of whipping and canning permanent incapaciation due to lathi charge have also been recognised for the purpose of grant of pension. As on 30-11-1996, only 14 fresh claims, received recently were pending for consideration.

(d) No, Sir.
